Why Morocco?

A LAND WHERE ISLAM TOOK ROOT
OVER 1,200 YEARS AGO

Morocco has been a beacon of Islam, knowledge and tolerance in North Africa for more than a millennium. From ancient cities to living traditions, every step is a journey through a rich Islamic heritage.

ISLAM ARRIVED EARLY

Islam reached Morocco in 680 AD during the Umayyad era, making it one of the earliest lands in North Africa to embrace Islam.

A LAND OF KNOWLEDGE

From ancient madrasas to Al Quaraouiyyine University in Fes (founded in 859 AD), Morocco has long been a center of learning and Islamic scholarship.

A MODEL OF TOLERANCE

Morocco's Islamic tradition is known for its moderation, tolerance and respect for diversity – values deeply rooted in its history.

FAITH & MONARCHY

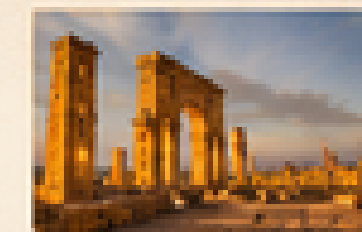

For over 12 centuries, Islam has been closely linked with Moroccan identity and the monarchy, uniting the people in faith and nation.

A LEGACY THAT ENDURES

680 AD

ISLAM ARRIVES

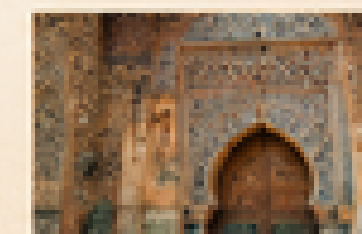

Islam was introduced to Morocco during the Umayyad era through trade and peaceful outreach.

788-974 AD

IDRISI DYNASTY

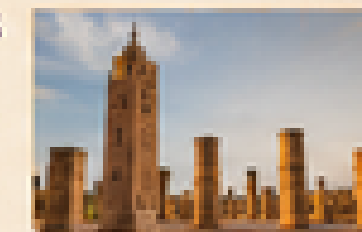

Established Morocco's first independent Islamic state, spreading Islam across the region.

1062-1269 AD

ALMORAVID & ALMOHAD EMPIRES

Golden ages of Islamic rule that expanded knowledge, built iconic mosques, and united North Africa and Andalusia.

859 AD

AL QUARAQUIYINE UNIVERSITY

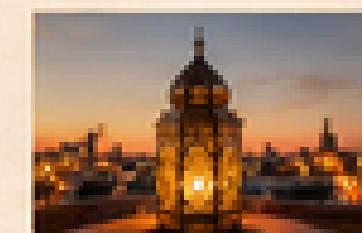

Founded in Fes, it is considered the world's oldest continually operating university.

TODAY

A LIVING HERITAGE

Morocco continues to preserve its Islamic identity, traditions, and role as a bridge between cultures.

LIVING HERITAGE TIMELESS VALUES

From our mosques and madrasas to our homes and hospitality – Islam is woven into everyday life in Morocco.

REAL CULTURE

REAL CONNECTIONS

REAL MEMORIES

CASABLANCA

WHERE THE ATLANTIC MEETS
ISLAMIC GRANDEUR

Casablanca is Morocco's cosmopolitan heart and home to one of the most magnificent mosques in the world.

HASSAN II MOSQUE

One of the largest mosques in the world and the only one in Morocco built partly over the ocean. Completed in 1993, its 210m minaret is the tallest religious structure in the world.

A MODERN ISLAMIC CITY

Casablanca beautifully blends Morocco's
Islamic heritage with modern life, reflecting a city that looks to the future
while honouring its faith and traditions.

CORNICHE & HABOUS QUARTER

From oceanfront views to traditional Arab-Moorish architecture, discover the soul of Casablanca in its details.

MARRAKESH

THE RED CITY OF FAITH,
HISTORY & LIFE

Marrakesh is one of Morocco's most historic imperial cities, rich in Islamic heritage, culture and timeless beauty.

KOUTOUBIA MOSQUE

Marrakesh's most iconic landmark, built in the 12th century. Its minaret inspired the Giralda in Seville and is a masterpiece of Almohad architecture.

A CITY OF SCHOLARS & SAINTS

For centuries, Marrakech has been a centre of Islamic learning, spirituality and Sufi traditions.

VIBRANT MEDINA

A UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with historic madrasas, mosques, palaces, souks and stories from the golden age of Islam in the West.

RABAT

THE ELEGANT CAPITAL
WITH A PROFOUND ISLAMIC HERITAGE

Rabat, Morocco's capital, is a city where tradition meets modernity. As an imperial city and UNESCO World Heritage site, it preserves a rich legacy of Islamic history, scholarship and governance.

Key Visit:
HASSAN TOWER & KASBAH OF THE UDAYAS

A symbol of faith, legacy and resilience.

HASSAN TOWER

An unfinished 12th-century minaret meant to be the world's tallest. A testament to Almohad vision and Islamic architectural brilliance.

KASBAH OF THE UDAYAS

A historic fortress built in the 12th century, offering stunning views and a glimpse into Islamic-Andalusian heritage.

A CITY OF FAITH & CULTURE

Rabat is home to beautiful mosques, Islamic institutions and a calm atmosphere that reflects Morocco's spiritual heart.

FES

THE SPIRITUAL & CULTURAL HEART OF MOROCCO

Fes, Morocco's oldest imperial city, is a living museum of Islamic civilisation. Its ancient Medina, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is one of the world's largest car-free urban areas and a centre of learning for over a thousand years.

Key Visit:
AL QUARAQUIYNE MOSQUE & UNIVERSITY

The world's oldest continuously operating university.

AL QUARAQUIYNE MOSQUE & UNIVERSITY

Founded in 859 AD by Fatima al-Fihri, it is recognised by UNESCO and Guinness World Records as the oldest degree-granting university in the world.

BOU INANIA MADRASA

A 14th-century theological school renowned for its exquisite Marinid architecture and intricate zellij tilework.

WALK THROUGH HISTORY

Explore the ancient Medina's narrow alleys, traditional souks, mosques, fountains and timeless craftsmanship.

From imperial legacies to spiritual treasures, Rabat and Fes reflect the soul of Morocco's Islamic heritage.

ONE JOURNEY. ENDLESS MEANING.

CHEFCHAOUEN

THE BLUE PEARL OF MOROCCO

Nestled in the Rif Mountains, Chefchaouen is one of Morocco's most enchanting towns. Founded in 1471 as a ribat (fortified outpost) by Moulay Ali Ben Moussa to protect the region and spread Islam, it became a centre of faith, learning and spiritual retreat.

DID YOU KNOW?

Chefchaouen's blue houses are said to symbolise the sky and paradise, reminding us of the heavens and our higher purpose in life.

A SPIRITUAL HERITAGE

The town is home to historic mosques and zawiyyas that reflect its deep Islamic roots and Andalusian heritage.

ANDALUSIAN INFLUENCE

Many families in Chefchaouen trace their origins to Andalusia, bringing with them a rich legacy of Islamic culture, art and tradition.

A PLACE OF PEACE

Surrounded by nature and tranquility, Chefchaouen offers a serene atmosphere that soothes the heart and uplifts the soul.

GREAT MOSQUE (MASHJID AL-'ADAM)

Believed to date back to the 15th century, this mosque is one of the oldest in the town and a testament to its early Islamic foundations.

THE KASBAH & ETHNOGRAPHIC MUSEUM

A 15th-century fortress that once defended the town. It now houses a museum showcasing the culture and history of the Rif region.

SPIRITUAL PATHWAYS

Wander through peaceful lanes that lead to small mosques and zawiyyas, where the locals gather for prayers and dhikr.

SCENIC MOUNTAIN RETREAT

A place where faith meets nature. The crisp mountain air and stunning views create the perfect setting for reflection.

“

Indeed, in the remembrance of Allah do hearts find rest.
(Qur'an 13:28)

Chefchaouen is more than a beautiful destination; it is a place of tranquility, reflection and spiritual renewal—an experience that stays in your heart long after you leave.

IFRANE – CEDAR FOREST – MIDELT – ZIZ VALLEY

THROUGH MOUNTAINS, FORESTS & VALLEYS – DISCOVER THE DIVERSE BEAUTY OF MOROCCO'S HEARTLAND

Journey from the charming alpine town of Ifrane, through ancient cedar forests and Berber villages, to the historic town of Midelt and on to the breathtaking Ziz Valley – a landscape of contrast, heritage and natural wonder.

IFRANE
THE SWITZERLAND OF MOROCCO

A unique alpine town founded in the 1930s by the French. Known for its clean streets, gardens and European architecture, Ifrane sits at 1,650m above sea level. It is also home to Al Akhawayn University, an international centre for learning and dialogue in the Muslim world.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

A reminder of how Islam embraces knowledge, modernity and harmony with nature.

CEDAR FOREST
ANCIENT TREES, TIMELESS SIGNIFICANCE

Home to the endangered Barbary macaque, the Cedar Forest (forêt des cèdres) is one of Morocco's natural treasures, with trees that are over 800 years old. A place of peace and reflection, mentioned in the Quran (Surah Al Ifran 17:60) as a land filled with blessings.

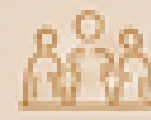

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

The enduring trees remind us of faith that is deep-rooted, strong and beneficial for generations.

MIDELT
THE GATEWAY OF THE MIDDLE ATLAS

A historic Berber town at the crossroads between the Middle Atlas and the Sahara. Known for its apples, carpets and warm hospitality, Midelt has long been a stop for caravans travelling between the north and the south.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

At every crossroads, we are reminded to choose the path that leads to righteousness.

ZIZ VALLEY
A GREEN OASIS IN THE DESERT

Famous for its endless palm groves and dramatic gorges, the Ziz Valley is one of Morocco's most beautiful natural wonders. Life flows through the valley, just as water gives life in the desert – a sign of Allah's mercy and provision.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

Like the water of Ziz, may our deeds bring life, benefit and barakah wherever we go.

+ EVERY LANDSCAPE TELLS A STORY. EVERY JOURNEY STRENGTHENS THE SOUL. +

✦ TODRA GORGE – DADES VALLEY – VALLEY OF ROSES – OUARZAZATE ✦

JOURNEY THROUGH DRAMATIC LANDSCAPES, FRAGRANT VALLEYS & KASBAH HERITAGE

From towering gorges carved by time to valleys painted in shades of green and pink, and ancient ksour that guarded the caravan routes – experience the soul of Southern Morocco.

TODRA GORGE

A MASTERPIECE CARVED BY NATURE

Walk beneath soaring cliffs that rise up to 300 meters high. The Todra Gorge is not only a natural wonder, but a reminder of Allah's perfect artistry in creating the earth.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

SubhanAllah, the might of creation leads us to the greatness of the Creator.

DADES VALLEY

THE ROAD OF A THOUSAND KASBAHS

Winding roads, dramatic rock formations and ancient kasbahs dot the Dades Valley. This is the land of hospitality, where Berber villages have thrived for generations.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

Every twist and turn is a lesson in patience, trust and tawakkul.

VALLEY OF ROSES

A FRAGRANT BLESSING

In spring, millions of damask roses bloom, filling the air with their perfume. The rose is used to produce precious rosewater, a tradition passed down for centuries.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

The beauty and fragrance of the rose remind us of the blessings hidden in humble creations.

OUARZAZATE

THE GATEWAY TO THE SAHARA

Known as the "Hollywood of Morocco", Ouarzazate is also a historic caravan crossroads and the gateway to the Sahara. Its ksour and film studios tell stories of both past and present.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

We are but travellers in this world; every place holds a story and a reminder.

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE OF AIT BEN HADDOU

TIZI N'TICHKA PASS – WOMEN'S ARGAN OIL COOPERATIVE

From ancient ksour to high mountain passes and timeless traditions, this journey connects you with the heart, heritage and people of Morocco.

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE OF AIT BEN HADDOU A LIVING KSAR, A TIMELESS LEGACY

A spectacular fortified village (ksar) along the ancient caravan route between the Sahara and Marrakech. Dating back to the 11th century, Ait Ben Haddou is a masterpiece of Southern Moroccan earthen architecture and has been the backdrop for many films and series, including Gladiator, Game of Thrones and Lawrence of Arabia.

A remarkable example of pre-Saharan settlement architecture.

A symbol of Morocco's rich history, trade and cultural heritage.

Recognised by UNESCO for its Outstanding Universal Value.

TIZI N'TICHKA PASS THE ROAD TO BREATHTAKING VIEWS

Cross the High Atlas Mountains via the stunning Tizi n'Tichka Pass, rising to 2,260 metres above sea level. Enjoy panoramic views, traditional Berber villages clinging to the hillsides and dramatic landscapes that change with every turn.

One of Morocco's most scenic mountain road journeys.

Breathtaking views of valleys, villages and peaks.

Perfect photo stops along the way.

WOMEN'S ARGAN OIL COOPERATIVE EMPOWERING WOMEN, PRESERVING TRADITION

Visit a local women's cooperative and discover the traditional process of producing pure argan oil – a precious Moroccan treasure. Support local women and take home authentic products while learning about the cultural and economic importance of argan in Morocco.

Support local women and their communities.

Learn the traditional process of making pure argan oil.
